Coming up next

We've got loads of great events coming up, you can visit our website for full details - www.performancevenues.group.shef.ac.uk

Daorí Farrell

Saturday 14th March 2026 - 7:30pm

£12-£18

Firth Hall

'His powerfully unadorned vocals might be from any era, variously recalling Paul Brady and Andy Irvine... it's a powerful statement.' - Mojo

Dublin singer and bouzouki player Daorí Farrell burst on to the international folk music scene with two prestigious BBC Radio 2 Folk Awards in 2017 for Best Newcomer and Best Traditional Track, performing live at the awards ceremony at London's Royal Albert Hall. His breakthrough album, 'True Born Irishman', released the previous year, introduced him as a remarkable new voice in Irish traditional music.

Prattyush Banerjee, Guiliano Modarelli & Gurdain Rayatt

Thursday 19th March 2026 - 7:30pm

£10-£16

Firth Hall

Scintillating crossover collaboration between three virtuoso's at their respective instruments: guitar, tabla and sarod.

Giuliano will perform 20 minutes as a tribute to his teacher, before introducing Prattyush onstage, with Gurdain accompanying throughout. This promises to be an unmissable evening of music from three adventurous performers, operating at the height of their musicianship.

Free Concerts on campus

Throughout term time we run free informal recitals and events in Firth Hall, including visiting guests and the performances from the talented students from the Department of Music.

These events are free to attend and are performed at lunch time and rush hour, which we believe make the events accessible for everyone to enjoy. To find out more about these events and to reserve your ticket, head to our website.
